To Whom It May Concern —

The graduate students who volunteer their time are most appreciated.
As a parent who sat in on a class, I was very impressed by the teaching ability to offer intriguing puzzles and encourage new ways of thinking. I want to especially recognize Nick who dealt very well with a student’s math frustration. Nick was very present and available — most remarkable.

Gratefully,

Michelle Estrick